Subject to the exclusions and restrictions described in this Agreement, for a period of one (1) year from the date the Application Services are made available to Customer, Current warrants that the Application Services will substantially conform to Current's documentation generally provided with the Application Services. Upon Customer's prompt written notification to Current during the warranty period of Current's possible breach of this warranty, to the extent permitted by applicable law, Current will, as its sole option, (i) make commercially reasonable efforts to provide a correction or technical support resolution to a reproducible error in the Application Services; or (ii) issue Customer a refund for any prepaid and unused subscription fees paid by Customer for the Application Services. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Current may change, terminate, or discontinue all or a portion of an Current Services if required by changes in Current's relationship with a third-party provider or licensor; if required to comply with law or requests or government entities; if providing the Current Services could create a substantial economic or technical burden or material legal or security risk; or if Current determines that use of the Current Services by Customer or the provision of the Current Services to Customer is prohibited or impractical due to a legal or regulatory reason. Current may change, discontinue, or add to the Current Services from time to time by posting a notice to the web site where such Current Services are described. If such changes have a materially adverse effect on Customer's use of the Current Services, Customer may notify Current in writing, and Current may propose resolutions or work-arounds. 3.11 Customer's Responsibilities.

3.11.1 Customer Content and Equipment. Customer is solely responsible for the accuracy, quality, development, content, operation, maintenance, and use of Customer Content, including the means by which Customer acquired Customer Content, and Customer equipment. Customer is responsible for securing all necessary rights and permissions to provide Customer Content to Current and to use Customer Content with the Current Services. For example, Customer is solely responsible for:

3.11.1.1 the technical operation of Customer Content;

3.11.1.2 compliance of Customer Content with the Acceptable Use Policy, related limitations documents, and applicable Documentation;

Customer's credentials (which may include username, passwords, tokens, certificates, keys, and pins) for accessing the Current Services are for Customer's internal use only and Customer may not share or disclose them to any other entity or person, except that Customer may disclose Customer's credentials to Authorized Users. Customer is responsible for any use of Customer's credentials and for notifying Current immediately of any breach of security related to Customer's credentials. Customer is responsible for complying with any security requirements published by Current or communicated to Customer for securing Customer Content in connection with use of the Current Services. Customer shall not take any action to circumvent any security feature or attempt to exceed authorized access to the Current Services or its related systems or networks; interfere with or disrupt the integrity or performance of the Current Services or the data contained therein; or send or store material containing software viruses, worms, Trojan horses or other harmful computer code, files, scripts, agents or programs. If Customer becomes aware of any violation of the foregoing by an Authorized User, Customer shall immediately terminate such Authorized User's access to Customer's account and notify Current.

3.13 Connectivity. Customer is solely responsible for providing internet connectivity for Customer's facilities and Customer equipment as necessary to access and use the Application Services (including all ISP charges). Current does not and cannot control the flow of data to or from the Application Services infrastructure and other portions of the internet. Customer acknowledges that such flow depends in large part on the performance of internet services provided or controlled by third parties, and at times, actions or inactions of such third parties can impair or disrupt Customer's connections to the internet (or portions thereof).

3.14 Third-Party Services. If specified on Current's web sites for the Current Services, third-parties may offer independent services, including hosted application services ("Third-Party Services"), directly to Customer under a separate agreement, and Customer's acceptance of such offers will constitute a separate agreement solely between Customer and the third-party provider thereof. If Customer subscribes to Third-Party Services, Customer consents to Current sharing with the third-party provider: (i) Customer contact and account information, (ii) Customer Content in connection with Customer's use of the Third-Party Services, and (iii) additional information, if any, disclosed in writing to Customer in connection with the Third-Party Services. Current shall have no warranty, support, maintenance, or other obligations or liability under this Agreement with respect to such Third-Party Services.

4. SOFTWARE

4.1 Scope. As used herein, the term "Software" shall mean certain computer software and related documentation that is provided to Customer through Customer's account by digital download or on physical media for Customer's installation on Customer's computer, including any updates or upgrades provided by Current pursuant to Support Services ordered by Customer. As used herein, the term "Software" excludes the Application Services as well as any software, application, or platform hosted by or on behalf of Current and provided as a service.

4.2 Licenses. Subject to Customer's pre-payment of all applicable subscription or license fees and compliance with this Agreement, Current grants to Customer a perpetual, limited, non transferable, nonexclusive license to use the Software provided to Customer through Customer's account for Customer's internal business use. Customer must comply with any license scope or usage limitations (such as named Authorized User, concurrent Authorized User, processor, server, site, facility, or asset-based limitations) contained in a purchase order or order form, as well as in this Agreement. Customer shall not license, sublicense, sell, resell, rent, lease, transfer, assign, distribute, time share, or commercially exploit the Software, or make the Software available to any third party, other than as expressly permitted by this Agreement.

4.3 Support Services. Customer may order Support Services for the Software. Support Services generally consist of Software updates and/or other annual technical support services Customer may order. If ordered, annual Support Services (including first year and all subsequent years) are provided under Current's Support Services policies in effect at the time the services are provided. Support Services policies are subject to change at Current's discretion; however, Current will not materially reduce the level of services provided for supported Software during the period for which fees for Support Services have been paid. Support Services shall renew automatically unless Customer provides Current with thirty (30) days written notice prior to the renewal date. Current reserves the right to desupport its Software or particular versions of its Software. Customer will be notified in advance when Current determines that a Software program is to be desupported.

4.4 Separately Licensed Software. Some software may be supplied to Customer under a separate license agreement, including open source software ("Third-Party Software"). Customer's use of such Third-Party Software will be governed by such separate license agreements. Current shall have no warranty, support, maintenance, or other obligations or liability under this Agreement with respect to such Third-Party Software.

4.5 Beta and Trial Versions. Beta versions of Software may contain bugs, errors, or other issues. If Current provides Customer access to generally-available Software for limited, temporary trial use, Customer's use is permitted for the period limited by the license key or by Current in writing. If there is no period identified, any trial use will expire thirty (30) days after the product is available to Customer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Current, in its discretion, may end the beta or trial at any time, at which point, Customer will no longer have access to any related data, information, and files, and Customer should immediately cease any further use. Furthermore, beta and trial products are provided "AS-IS" without support or any express or implied warranty or indemnity for any problems or issues, and Current will not have any liability relating to Customer's use of such Software.

4.6 Customer Responsibilities. Customer shall be solely responsible for:

4.6.1 properly installing, configuring, and using the Software in accordance with applicable documentation,

4.6.2 providing any hardware, equipment, and physical infrastructure necessary to run the Software,

4.6.3 providing any third-party software not included in the Software,

4.6.4 compliance with applicable laws related to the use, storage, or processing of Customer Content,

4.6.5 the proper operation, control, and maintenance of Customer equipment monitored by the Software, and

4.6.6 applying patches, bug fixes, upgrades, and updates of the Software or third-party software.

4.7 Return or Destruction. Upon the expiration of the license term, or its earlier termination in accordance with this Agreement, Customer shall certify, at Current's written request, the deletion or return of all copies of Software in Customer's possession.

5. CUSTOMER REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Customer represents and warrants that it has all rights and consents necessary to disclose Customer Content to Current and to permit Current to use the Customer Content to perform Current's obligations hereunder.

6. OWNERSHIP

6.1 Current Intellectual Property. All right, title and interest in the Current Services and Current Content, including any support services provided in connection with Customer's use of the Current Services, any other materials, equipment or information, whether written or otherwise, furnished or made available hereunder by Current and all Intellectual Property rights in each of the foregoing, belong to and are retained solely by Current or its licensors as applicable except those limited rights and licenses expressly granted to Customer by this Agreement.

6.2 Customer Content. As between Customer and Current, Customer retains all rights, title, and interests in and to Customer Content. Customer further agrees that Current and its Affiliates may use information derived from Customer Content or generated by the Current Services to maintain, protect, create, develop, and improve the Current Services and other Current products and services, to the extent permitted by applicable law, and such creations, developments, and improvements shall belong to Current. Customer hereby grants to Current a limited, non-exclusive, royalty-free, worldwide license to use the Customer Content and perform all acts with respect to the Customer Content as may be necessary for Current to provide the Current Services to Customer, produce processed data, and otherwise perform Current's obligations under this Agreement. To the extent that receipt of the Customer Content requires Current to utilize any account information from a third-party service provider, Customer shall be responsible for obtaining and providing relevant account information and passwords, and Current hereby agrees to access and use the Customer Content solely for Customer's benefit and as set forth in this Agreement.

6.2.1 Aggregated Statistics and Processed Data. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in this Agreement, Current may monitor Customer's use of the Application Services and use Customer Content in an aggregated and anonymized manner, including to compile statistical and performance information related to the provision and operation of the Application Services ("Aggregated Statistics"). Customer acknowledges that Current will be compiling Aggregated Statistics based on Customer Content, processed data, and information input by other customers into the Application Services. Customer agrees that Current may: (a) make Aggregated Statistics publicly available, (b) use processed data for creating, improving and modifying Current products and services and (b) use such information to the extent and in the manner required by applicable law or regulation and for purposes of data gathering, analysis, service enhancement and marketing, provided that such data and information does not identify Customer or Customer's Confidential Information.

6.3 Reserved Rights. Customer acknowledges that the Current Services are protected by the copyright, patent, trade secret, trademark, and/or other Intellectual Property laws of the United States and other countries. As between Current and Customer, Current (or its Affiliates and licensors) owns and reserve all Intellectual Property rights in the Current Services.

6.4 Restrictions. Customer shall not, directly or indirectly, and Customer shall not permit any Authorized User or third party to: (a) reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble or otherwise attempt to discover the object code, source code or underlying ideas or algorithms of the Current Services; (b) modify, translate, or create derivative works based on any element of the Current Services; (c) use the Current Services for timesharing purposes or otherwise for the benefit of any person or entity other than for the benefit of Customer and Authorized Users without the explicit written approval of Current; (d) remove any proprietary notices from the Current Services; (e) publish or disclose to third parties any evaluation of the Current Services without Current's prior written consent; (f) use the Current Services for any purpose other than its intended purpose or otherwise contrary to the Documentation or applicable license; (g) interfere with or disrupt the integrity or performance of the Current Services; (h) introduce any Open Source Software into the Current Services; (i) attempt to gain unauthorized access to the Current Services or the related systems or networks; (j) access or use the Current Services in a way intended to avoid incurring fees or to exceed usage limits or quotas, or (k) remove, alter, or obscure any product notices, trademarks, or proprietary notices that accompany the Current Services, or authorize or assist others to do any of the foregoing.

6.5 Suggestions. Customer authorizes Current and its Affiliates to use feedback and ideas Customer provides in connection with Customer's use of the Current Services for any purpose.

6.6 Current Developments and Improvements. All inventions, works of authorship and developments and all Intellectual Property therein conceived or created by or on behalf of Current, whether solely or jointly with Customer, including without limitation, in connection with Current's performance of any services provided by Current in connection with the Current Services, shall be the sole and exclusive property of Current ("Current Developments"). Customer further agrees that any improvements, modifications and enhancements to Current Services and all Intellectual Property rights therein conceived or created by Customer shall be the sole and exclusive property of Current ("Improvements"). Customer agrees to and hereby assigns to Current (and shall cause its Affiliates, employees, consultants and agents to assign to Current) all right, title and interest in and to such Current Developments and Improvements, including without limitation all the Intellectual Property rights therein, without the necessity of any further consideration.

6.7 Further Assurances. To the extent any of the rights, title and interest in and to Current Developments or Improvements or Intellectual Property rights therein cannot be assigned by Customer to Current, Customer agrees and hereby grants (and shall cause its Affiliates, employees, consultants and agents to grant) to Current an exclusive, royalty-free, transferable, irrevocable, worldwide, fully paid-up license (with rights to sublicense through multiple tiers of sublicensees) to fully use, practice and exploit those non-assignable rights, title and interest in an unrestricted manner. To the extent that the foregoing assignment and license are not enforceable, Customer agrees (and shall cause its Affiliates, employees, consultants and agents) to waive and never assert against Current those non-assignable and non-licensable rights, title and interest. Customer agrees (and shall cause its Affiliates, employees, consultants and agents to agree) to execute any documents or take any actions as may reasonably be necessary, or as Current may reasonably request, to perfect ownership of the Improvements and Current Developments. If Customer is unable or unwilling to execute any such document or take any such action, Current may execute such document and take such action on Customer's behalf as Customer's agent and attorney-in-fact. The foregoing appointment is deemed a power coupled with an interest and is irrevocable.

7. CONFIDENTIALITY

7.1 Non-Disclosure and Non-Use. A Party receiving Confidential Information (the "Receiving Party") shall not directly or indirectly, at any time, without the prior written consent of the Party disclosing such Confidential Information (the "Disclosing Party"), use or disclose the Confidential Information or any part thereof for any use other than necessary for the performance of the Receiving Party's obligations under this Agreement or as otherwise expressly permitted by this Agreement. The Receiving Party shall use reasonable efforts, but not less than those efforts it uses to protect its own information of a similar nature, to avoid disclosure, dissemination, or unauthorized use of the Confidential Information of the Receiving Party. Upon reasonable request of the Disclosing Party, the Receiving Party will either return, delete or destroy all Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party and certify the same.

7.2 Compelled Disclosure. If the Receiving Party is requested by a governmental authority to disclose any Confidential Information, it shall promptly notify the Disclosing Party, to the extent permitted by law, to permit the Disclosing Party to seek a protective order or take other appropriate action, and shall assist in such activities. The Receiving Party shall only disclose that part of the Confidential Information as is required by law to be disclosed and the Receiving Party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain confidential treatment therefor.

7.3 Injunctive Relief. In addition to any other rights and remedies under this Agreement or at law, the Receiving Party acknowledges and agrees that, due to the nature of the Confidential Information, its confidentiality obligations to the Disclosing Party under this Agreement are of a unique character and agrees that any breach of such obligations may result in irreparable and continuing damage to the Disclosing Party for which there may be no adequate remedy in damages and accordingly the Disclosing Party shall be authorized and entitled to seek injunctive or other equitable relief.

8. INDEMNIFICATION

8.1 By Customer. Customer shall defend and indemnify Current, Current's Affiliates and licensors, and each of their respective employees, officers, directors, and representatives from and against any claims, damages, losses, liabilities, costs, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising out of or relating to any third-party claim concerning: (a) Customer's or any of its Authorized Users' use of the Current Services; (b) Current's use of, or access to, Customer Content or the combination of Customer Content with other applications, content, or processes, including any claim involving alleged infringement or misappropriation of third-party rights by Customer Content or by the use, development, design, production, advertising, or marketing of Customer Content; (c) a dispute between Customer and any Authorized User; or (d) personal injury and/or property damage alleged to be caused by Customer's use of Current Services to manage Customer Content, software, services, or equipment.

CUSTOMER IS SOLELY RESPONSIBLE FOR, AND BEARS ALL RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH THE CONTROL, OPERATION, AND USE OF CUSTOMER EQUIPMENT.

9.2 NOT WITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY, NEITHER CURRENT NOR CURRENT'S AFFILIATES, LICENSORS, OR RESELLERS SHALL BE LIABLE FOR CUMULATIVE, AGGREGATE DAMAGES GREATER THAN AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO THE AMOUNTS PAID BY CUSTOMER UNDER THIS AGREEMENT DURING THE PERIOD OF TWELVE (12) MONTHS PRECEDING THE DATE ON WHICH THE CLAIM FIRST ACCRUED WITHOUT REGARD TO WHETHER SUCH CLAIM IS BASED IN CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE), PRODUCT LIABILITY OR OTHERWISE.

9.3 Essential Purpose. Customer acknowledges that the terms in this Section 9 (Limitations of Liability) shall apply to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law and shall apply even if an exclusive or limited remedy stated herein fails of its essential purpose.

10. TERM AND TERMINATION

10.1 Term. The term of this Agreement will commence on the effective date of the corresponding purchase order or order form, and will remain in effect for one (1) year, unless otherwise set forth in the corresponding purchase order or order form, and shall remain in effect thereafter and shall automatically renew for a successive one year renewal period unless either party gives the other at least ninety (90) days' prior written notice of its intent to terminate at the end of the initial term or any then-current renewal term. Except as otherwise provided herein, each renewal term will renew in accordance with Current's then-applicable terms and fees.

10.2 Termination.

10.2.1 For Breach. Either Party may terminate this Agreement for a material breach by the other Party, which breach is not cured within thirty (30) days of written notice provided to the breaching Party, or which breach is incapable of being cured.
